

CONTENTS

	Page
Use of Heavy Mineral Analysis in Determining Provenance of Coastal Sediments: A Case Study from Sri Lanka — Upali Weerakkody	01
The British Attitudes Towards the Caste System and Social Relations In Sri-Lanka during the 19th Century — Anula Attanayake	13
Utilization of Agricultural Knowledge Systems in Farming Systems Research/Extension — Mahinda Wijeratne	25
A Review of Caste Consideration in the Public Service by the Dutch and the British Officials in the Maritime Provinces of Sri Lanka up to 1850 — M. U. De Silva	31
The Influence of Soil Physical Factors on Tapering Disease of Coconut in the Mapalana Research Farm — K. D. N. Weerasinghe	67
The Atamasthana at Anuradhapura: A Brief Historical Survey — U. B. Karunananda	77
Rise and Fall of Patronage: a Study of a Maritime Fishing Community of Southern Sri Lanka — Oscar Amarasinghe	87
අරුත් කිරිය සඳ — ඩී. ඩී. ඒකනායක	119
A study of the Genetic Variability of Brachiaria brizantha (Hochst ex. A. Rich) stapf — S. G. J. N. Senanayake & M. A. Pemadasa	149